

1911

Hear My Cry

The Spirit Himself intercedes for us, with groanings too deep for words... Romans 8:26

G \flat - 4 - SOL \downarrow

1. When my soul is worn and wea - ry and my eyes are filled with grief,
 2. Would I find the words there wait - ing if I had the strength to start?
 3. Spir - it, search me in my weak - ness, and dis - cern this grow - ing gray.

When my hands in des - per - a - tion reach to heav - en for re - lief,
 Could a mor - tal tongue in - ter - pret all the sor - row of a heart?
 In - ter - cede in un - der - stand - ing, hear the things I can not say.

Chorus

Hear my cry, heav'n - ly Fa - ther, You have known my ev - 'ry pain.
 Hear my cry now, heav'n - ly Fa - ther, You have

You have seen all my sor - row, Hear my cry once a - gain.
 You have seen all of my sor - row, Hear my

G. M. Eldridge

© Copyright 2023 by Acapeldridge.
All Rights Reserved. Used by Permission.

G. M. Eldridge